H. P. WARING, Editor.

Saturday, September 25, 1869.

Colonel John B. Baldwin.

(From the Winchester Sentinel.)

We have been permitted by a friend to quote the following extracts from a private letter lately received from this gentleman. All must admire his commanding intellect, however much they may differ from him politically. His devotion to Virginia, at least, will hardly be questioned, save by those who can never forget old political prejudices. He says:

"I am, as you know, thoroughly disfranchised and disqualified for all official preferment, either State or federal, and have never had any idea of applying for any relief from my disabilities in advance of that general amnesty which some day or other, I presume will come alike to all the people of Virginia. It would, therefore be very absurd in me to engage in any political combinations at a time of such political uncertainty as that upon which we have fallen. I am not in the political market as buyer or seller, nor have I anything to barter. * * My politics are emphatically Virginian. If I have ever forgotten for one moment to look after her rights, her interest or her honor, I am not conscious of the delinquency. If I have ever seemed to surrender any of her rights, it has been only because I had utterly lost all means and all hope of maintaining them entire, and felt that the only way to save anything would be to let go frankly, whatever was clearly lost. If I have ever conceded anything to a radical, it was because he had it already."

We glory in such a men as Baldwin. Ed Times.

A Difference.

The Standard and Mr. Treasurer Jenkins differ as to the amount of valid appropriations made by the present Legislature. The "organ" of the 23rd gives, what it calls, a "correct list" of appropriations, amounting in the aggregate to $13,029,000.

Mr. Treasurer Jenkins, in his first explanatory letter to the Sentinel, which appeared on the 15th inst., says: "The total amount of new bonds authorized by the General Assembly for Railroads, not pronounced unconstitutional, is about $16,300,000" He, in the same letter, gives the amount of appropriations declared unconstitutional by the Courts, as $9,850,000. In his second letter, which appeared in the Sentinel on the 20th, he alludes to the valid appropriations again, in round numbers, as "$16,000,000."

RECAPITULATION.

Amount of appropriations made by the Legislature and considered valid, in round numbers, according to Treasurer Jenkins,	$16,000,000
Amount of appropriation made by the Legislature, in round numbers, according to the Standard,	$13,000,000
Difference between the Treasurer and the "Organ"	$ 3,000,000

Somebody has made a mistake, wittingly or unwittingly. Is it the Standard or the Treasurer, whose business it is to know all about these things? Three millions of dollars may appear a small matter in the estimation of the "organ," but the people who pay the taxes will estimate it differently. That sum would have paid the Government expenses of North Carolina in former times, under our good old system, for about thirty years!

Treasurer Jenkins says, in his first letter, that the amount of appropriations made by the Legislature, declared unconstitutional by the Courts, was $9,850,000. Put this with the $16,300,000, which he says is considered valid, and we have $26,150,000; the amount we said in our article of the 15th, had been appropriated by the Legislature for Railroads

Neither Treasurer Jenkins, in his letter, nor the "organ," says one word about the Penitentiary appropriation, either among the valid or the invalid appropriations!

Now, a word about this $16,000,000 valid appropriations: These bonds have been issued and put on the market, and sold, say at an average of 48 cents on the dollar. (For some time they were as low as 44½.) The 48 cents greenbacks are equal say to 32 cents in gold, but we will put the average at 35.

On $16,000,000, then, the State realizes	$5,600,000
The people are taxed to pay interest on $16,000,000 which at 6 per cent. amounts annually to	$ 960,000
The interest on what she realizes by the sale of her bonds at the same rate, would be	$ 336,000
So the State pays in interest, annually, on nothing	$ 624,000

And must eventually redeem bonds, on which she realizes nothing, to the amount of $10,400,000! In thirty years time, for which the bonds run she will pay in interest, on nothing, $18,720,000! which added to the above, makes the enormous sum of $29,120,000, which the Radical Legislature has saddled upon the State, for which she never will realize one single cent.

In addition to this exhibit, take from the $5,600,000, which is realized on the sale of the bonds, the unknown amount that finds its way into the pockets of the members of the "Ring," and you can form some idea, reader, of the amount of benefit the State is likely to derive from the onerous burden of taxation that has been imposed upon the tax payers of North Carolina!

But the above exhibit does not represent the whole facts in the case. These are only the Railroad appropriations. We have not said a word yet about the enormous expense you are called upon to pay for a horde of new and useless public officers; for the change in your system of Justice; unnecessary expenditures for militia campaigns; money paid for work that officials ought to, but cannot, perform; and a thousand other things, many of which we intend to bring out and hold up to the inspection and for the condemnation of the tax payers of this generation.

We shall probably revert to this subject again to-morrow.—Sentinel.

A Letter of Lady Byron's.

The London Times publishes the following letter extracted from unpublished memoirs of Lady Ann Barnard, who was a friend and confidant of the writer, Lady Byron:

"I am a very incompetent judge of the impression which the last canto of Childe Harold may produce on the minds of indifferent readers. It contains the usual trace of a conscience restlessly awake, though his object has been too long to aggravate its burden, as if it could thus be oppressed into eternal stupor. I will hope, as you do, that it survives for his ultimate good. It was the acuteness of his remorse, impenitent in its character, which so long seemed to demand from my companion to spare every semblance of reproach, every look of grief, which might have said to his conscience, 'You have made me wretched.' I am decidedly of opinion that he his responsible. He has wished to be thought partially deranged, or on the brink of it, to perplex observers and prevent them from tracing effects to their real causes through all the intricacies of his conduct.

I was, I told you, at one time the dupe of his acted insanity, and clung to the former delusion in regard to the motives that concerned me personally till the whole system was laid bare. He is the abolute monarch of words, and uses them, as Buonaparte did lives, for conquest, without more regard to their intrinsic value, considering them only as ciphers which must derive all their import from the situation in which he places them and the ends to which he adapts them with such consummate skill. Why, then, you will say, does he not employ them to give a better color to his own character? Because he is too good an actor to over-act, or to assume a moral garb which it would be easy to strip off. In regard to his poetry, egotism is the vital principle of his imagination, which it is difficult for him to kindle on any subject with which his own character and interests are not identified; but by the introduction of fictitious incidents, by change of scene or time, he has enveloped his poetical discloosures in a system impenetrable except to a very few, and his constant desire of creating a sensation makes him not averse to be the object of wonder and curiosity, even though accompanied by some dark and vague suspicions. Nothing has contributed more to the misunderstanding of his real character than the lonely grandeur in which he shrouds it, and his affectation of being above mauking, when he exists almost in their voice. The romance of his sentiments is another feature of this mask of state. I know no one more habitually destitute of that enthusiasm he so beautifully expresses, and to which he can work up his fancy chiefly by contagion. I had heard he was the best of brothers, the most generous of friends, and I thought such feelings only required to be warmed and cherished into more diffusive benevolence. Though these opinions are eradicated, and could never return but with the decay of my memory, you will not wonder if there are still moments when the association of feelings which arose from them soften and sadden my thoughts. But I have not thanked you, dearest Lady Anne, for your kindness in regard to a principal object—that of rectifying false impressions. I trust you understand my wishes, which were ever to injure Lord Byron in any way; for, though he would not suffer me to remain his wife, he cannot prevent me from continuing his friend; and it was from considering myself as such that I silenced the accusations by which my own conduct might have been more fully justified. It is not necessary to speak ill of his heart in general; it is sufficient that to me it was hard and impenetrable—that my own must have been broken before his could have been touched. I would rather represent this as my misfortune than as his guilt; but, surely, that misfortune is not to be made my crime! Such are my feelings: you will judge how to act. His allusions to me in Childe Harold are cruel and cold, but with such a semblance as to make me appear so, and to attract all sympathy to himself. It is said in this poem that hatred of him will be taught as a lesson to his child. I might appeal to all who have ever heard me speak of him, and still more to my own heart, to witness that there has been no moment when I have remembered injury otherwise than affectionately and sorrowfully. It was not my duty to give way to hopeless and wholly unrequitted affection, but, so long as I live, my chief struggle will probably be not to remmember him too kindly. I do not seek the sympathy of the world, but I wish to be known by those whose opinion is valuable, and whose kindness is dear to me. Among such, my dear Lady Anne, you will ever be remembered by your truly affectionate.

A. BYRON."

A Maine man gives his method of treating baulky horses as follows: "Let me inform humane men and hostlers, and all who hold the rein, that the way to cure baulky horses is to take them from the carriage and whirl them rapidly round till they are giddy. It requires two men to accomplish this, one at the horses tail.—Don't let him step out. Hold him to the smallest possible circle. One dose will often cure him; two doses are final with the worst horse that ever refused to stir.

Two gentlemen, one named Woodcock, the other Fuller, walking together, happened to see an owl, the latter said, "that bird is very much like a woodcock." "You are very wrong," said the first, "for its Fuller in the head, Fuller in the eyes, and Fuller all over."

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says that the Ben. Butler scheme is for him to succeed Governor Claflin, after his next term, Dr. Lorning to succeed the General in Congress, and the General to be elected President in 1872, if nothing breaks.

WHAT EX GOVERNOR SEWARD HAS SEEN.—What one man may live to see is admirably illustrated in Mr. Seward's Alaska speech, as follows:

"Within the period of my own recollection, I have seen twenty new States added to the eighteen which before that time constituted the American Union, and now see beside Alaska ten Territories in a forward condition of preparations for entering into the same great political family. I have seen in my own time not only the first railroad and the first steamboat invented by man.

AWFUL.—For Heaven's sake, what next? Here is lovely woman going to clubs and cattle-yards, keeping a night-key, and holding muss meetings, and now she purposes sharing our athletic sports and emulating our fights. We read the other day how a young lady with nice little boots won a prize for jumping. We heard of another lady about the same time who kicked a man in the stomach till he died. And now comes Madam Olympe Audouard, whose French lectures and elegant dresses at our Union League Theatre last year the fashionable world has not forgotten, and challenges M. de Villemesant to fight a duel, because he criticised her book too sharply in the Paris Figaro. M. de Villemesant may be a brave man, but a woman with a pistol is more than he is willing to face; and we don't blame him.

GOV. VANCE TO LECTURE IN THIS CITY.—A letter has been received by one of the gentlemen of the committee appointed by the Ladies' Memorial Association to devise means for the increase of the monument fund, from Gov. Vance, accepting an invitation to deliver a lecture in our city in behalf of this cause. The time is not definitely stated by Gov. Vance in his letter, but it will be during the month of December next.

We feel gratified at this success in securing the services of so popular and able a lecturer in behalf of a cause in which we all feel so deep an interest. Gov. Vance can and will draw a crowd and will be instrumental in increasing the fund for our memorial monument to an important extent.

Wil. Journal.

THE CUBAN LEADER.—Cespedes, the leader of the Cuban revolution, is thus described by an American gentleman who has returned from the Island:

"He is a man about 45 years of age; is a middling stout gentleman, of agreeable temper, and is quiet and mild mannered. His complexion is fair, though of dark brown hair and eyes There is no pretence about him. He is no talker, yet when he speaks it is to the purpose. He reads English well, and speaks it, though not fluently. At first view one would take him for a plain, quiet, unpretending gentleman; but on acquaintance he discovers sagacity, and a profound knowledge of men and of the world. It may be said that he is a man of eminent practical ideas. He is unmoved at reverses, and has a high, undoubting confidence in the success of the revolution. There is no gentleman more amiable than he, and none more beloved by everybody. Cespedes is a large property owner; was at the opening of the war the first lawyer at the Bayamo bar, and has been eminently successful in all his efforts and undertakings. He can endure much, for his physique is well adapted to labor, either mental or physical. Perhaps he would weigh 150 pounds.

The October Atlantic has nothing to say about the Stowe-Byron controversy; but Mrs. Stowe's defence is promised for the November number.

In Boston it is noticed as a remarkable fact that "The Board of Aldermen held a meeting on Monday without voting themselves a dinner."

A steam shovel capable of doing the work of one hundred men has just been put in use on one of the Illinois railroads, for the purpose of loading cars with gravel.

In Orange county a man named Tanny Hathcock, has had his head shaved for swapping wives with a colored man.—Star.

Mrs. Partingson says she may be old now, but she has seen the day when she was as young as she ever was.

Senator Brownlow, of Tennessee, now believes that ex-Governor Neil S. Brown will be elected United States Senator.

Pennsylvania furnished twenty-two victims last week, as sacrifices to the shrine of kerosene oil.

The New York Express calls the Harbor Master fees, and other unnecessary exactions from shipping, "petty larceny fees."

A Chicago lady, who edits a law journal there, is about to be admitted to the bar, and will practice law in partnership with her husband.

A frontier horseman in Kansas City, Mo., rode his horse up three flights of stairs, and then hired six negroes to carry the animal down again.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Keep the Body in Good Repair.

It is much easier to keep the system in good condition than to restore it to that condition when shattered by disease. The "House of Life," like other houses, should be promptly propped up and sustained whenever it shows any sign of giving way. The first sympton of physical debility should be taken as a hint that a stimulant is required. The next question is, "What shall the stimulant be?"

A wholesome vegetable tonic, the stimulating properties of which are modified by the juices and extracts of anti febrile and laxative roots and herbs,—something which will regulate, soothe and purify, as well as invigorate,—is the medicine required by the debilitated. There are many preparations which are claimed to be of this description, but HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the great vegetable preventive and restorative that has won its way to the confidence of the public and the medical profession by a quarter of a century of unvarying success, stands pre-eminent among them all. To expatiate on its popularity would be to repeat a twice-told tale. It is only necessary to consult the records of the United States Revenue Department to learn that its consumption is greater than that of any other proprietary remedy of either native or foreign origin.

As a mean of sustaining the health and strength under a fiery temperature, the BITTERS have a paramount claim to consideration. It has the effect of fortifying and bracing the nervous and muscular systems against the ordinary consequences of sudden and violent changes of temperature, and is therefore peculiarly useful at this season, when hot sunshine by day, and ice-cold dews by night, alternately heat and chill the blood of those who are exposed to them.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are sold in bottles only. To avoid being deceived by counterfeits, see that the name of the article is on the label, and embossed on the glass of the bottles, and our revenue stamp over the cork.

Testimonials from England.

SIR,—Having suffered severely from rheumatic pains in the head and face, I was induced, from what I heard said of it, to try PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, from which I soon found relief. It is indeed a valuable article.

I am yours &c.,
WILLIAM EVANS, (Signed)
Willenhall, England.

This is to certify that I have been a sufferer from Indigestion and violent Sick Headache for upwards of four years. I have consulted many of the Faculty, but have derived no material benefit from any source, until I tried PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, which, I am happy to state, has done me more good than all I ever tried before.

ESTHER BRIGGS. Bolton, England.

GENTLEMAN,—I have much pleasure in speaking of the great efficacy and usefulness of your PAIN KILLER. Two years ago I was severely afflicted with a painful internal disease, when a friend of mine, who had just returned from the States, gave me a small quantity of PAIN KILLER, which he had brought over with him. I took it as directed, and the relief was immediate, and so satisfied was I of its value as a medicine, that I immediately sent to New York for half a dozen bottles; and I am thankful to say, that it has proved to my family and friends who have used it of inestimable value in relieving almost all kinds of pain and suffering.

Yours, &c., H D. MEAD,
No. 1 Pall Mall, Manchester.

Baptist Church.—No service to-morrow.

LUTHERAN CHURCH.—Rev. N. Aldrich.—Services to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Rev. B. S. Bronson—Services morning 10½ A. M., afternoon, at 5 P. M.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The Pastor, Rev. E. J. Meynardie, will preach in Tryon Street Methodist Church to-morrow morning at 10½ o'clock, and Rev. J. W. North, Presiding Elder, at night, at 7½ o'clock.

Applicants for membership will be received into the Church, according to the Disciplinary provision, immediately after the sermon at night.

On Thursday night, we dropped in at the Young Men's Christian Association Room, to hear and see what was the order of proceeding. It was a very pleasurable visit. One night every other week is devoted to exercises which not only improve the heart, but the mind. A literary treat is offered and the public are invited to attend. Capt. John Burwell is President, and uses the influence which his cultivated mind and Christian training gives him to elevate the tone and increase the desire for mental improvement on the part of the young men of Charlotte, in whom he seems to take a deep interest.

On this occasion, Col. Osborne read a very interesting tale from Miss Mitford, and need we say, read it well. The Col. is a cultivated gentleman, and we mark him as one of the rising men of this city. Pure, elevated, and cultivated, he is destined to play a distinguished role in the history of Old Mecklenburg who knows her jewels and appreciates them so well.

Mr. S. A. Caldwell read two pieces, and read them well, the first decidedly so. He has a good deal of humor and is a useful and popular member.

Capt. A. T. Coit read a beautiful poem. The selection evinced good [illegible] and the execution was very [illegible].

Robert[illegible] Aldrich read an original piece quite gracefully, in which he took occasion to appeal to the ladies of Charlotte, (many of whom were present,) to lend their [illegible] and support to the Association. It was his first effort and he appeared to advantage.

Charlotte is a great and growing city, but she has neither theatre nor concert hall, and offers but slim advantages for the cultivation of taste and a literary spirit, hence the utility of an association like this. We trust it will be kept up and an increased interest taken in it.

We regret to notice the suspension of the Evangelical Lutheran, a religious journal which for the past three years has been published in this city by Rev. N. Aldrich. It was ably edited, and was a credit to the church it represented. We are astonished to find that this excellent paper has not met with the patronage it so richly deserved. Surely its friends will not permit it to retire permanently from the field of journalism. Its speedy reappearance will give pleasure to many of its readers outside of the church it represented.

THE STREETS.—We notice in front of our office, considerable improvement to the side walks and street are being made. Not long ago, we chronicled the fact that iron posts for gas were being erected at different sections, and soon the city will be lighted up. The Mayor is fully alive to the interests of our city, and under his judicious management, not only order is preserved, but improvements are constantly being carried forward.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was quite cloudy, and many a prayer went up for rain. Our readers while conning this can better tell whether they were answered than we can while writing it.

Trade was yesterday more than usually brisk. Cotton in spite of the decline is coming in rapidly. The streets were crowded with wagons, and the grocers, particularly, did a staving business.

There need be no stronger recommendation of Silver Ware than the remark one frequently hears—"Oh! its almost all good as Kirk's." The old and extensive establishment of Sam'l Kirk & Son has always been one of the features of Baltimore, and their watches and jewelry are as reputable as their Standard Silver Ware. See card in another column.

Secretary Boutwell, Commissioner Delano, and other officers of the Government, have accepted invitations to attend the Georgia State Fair in November.

We hope no prominent Yankees will be invited to attend our Fair as we will have a plenty of them any way.

A Milwaukee man who deposited one hundred dollars in a savings bank and was told the interest would be five per cent, came promptly at the end of the year with five dollars in small currency to pay that interest. When told that the five dollars went the other way he looked up in astonishment, and he went away wondering why a man should pay him for being allowed to take care of his money a whole year.

LATEST NEWS.

Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Coupons due in November will be redeemed at a rebate of six per cent. per annum, in order to relieve the small note famine. The Comptroller will recieve large notes of their own issue from National Banks and give them an exchange of smaller notes, with as little delay as possible.

Revenue to-day $300,000.

The Government of the United States learning from parties, who had visited Spain, that its mediation between Spain and Cuba would be accepted by Spain instructed Minister Sickles to tender its friendly offices.

Spain has formally replied, thanking the United States, but declining to enter into arrangements with the insurgents on the basis proposed.

There is no reason to believe that Spain invited European Powers to interfere in its concerns regarding Cuba. Spain, having declined mediation, there is nothing else proposed by our Government.

There are no war apprehensions felt here.

Foreign.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Times says: "That the Spanish have found their advantage in a bold display of patriotism and national courage. She met the imagined affront with immediate defiance, though their threatened adversary is ten times more powerful than themselves. Sickles is manifestly alarmed at the result of his proceedings, and has requested further instructions. Pending a reply from Washington, he desires to withdraw his note. If this is actually the position of the case, Spain owes it to her own fearlessness, which may savor of unreason, but does not partake of the nature of bravado. She declares that if driven to an extremity she will fight, and no doubt she will. For her to gain any advantage by doing so is out of the question, but as matters stand, she would lose less than her adversary. America may decline an easy victory on such onerous and partial terms.

The people and government of Spain have resolved not to part with Cuba without a struggle. The contest could only result in the sacrifice of Cuba, coupled with other but slighter losses. Sickles expected no such resistance as his note has provoked. Possibly in the face of such opposition his proceedings may be qualified or repudiated by his. Government. It is believed he exceeded his authority; that America is not responsible for his acts at Madrid.

The treaty of Commerce between England and Spain is about completed. The first action of the Cortes on re-assembling will be the election of a King. Thus far the King of Portugal is the favorite."

CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has

DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES

which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market.—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.
